

PRAISE! CRITICAL ACCLAIM! BUZZ!

THIS IS NOT THE ABBY SHOW

Debbie Reed Fischer

"Like Jack Gantos's Joey Pigza books, this lively novel from Fischer offers a firsthand view of life with ADHD."--Publisher's Weekly

"Abby's funny and engaging first-person narrative recalls the tone of Jeff Kinney's Wimpy Kid and Rachel Renne Russell's Dork Diaries, and the ultimate message – friends can help bring out the best in someone – is heartwarming." --Booklist

"Fischer creates a captivating portrayal of one girl's experiences with ADHD . . . Fischer's spunky and introspective protagonist offers a sympathetic mirror for many kids, both boys and girls."--Kirkus Reviews

"The characters are likable and fun to follow from start to finish, and their growth rings true. The author does a great job of shining some light on ADHD and how it can affect people differently."--School Library Journal

"A charming, funny, and heartfelt adventure, Abby's story will touch your heart, your soul, and your funny bone."--DAVID LUBAR, author of Hidden Talents and the Weenies short-story collections

"There's a hilarious new star on the scene. Despite her many ADHD-fueled mistakes, irrepressible Abby Green will make you fall crazy in love with her. You'll root wildly for Abby as she navigates floundering friendships, a sometimes frustrating family, summer school, and a derailed dream." --Donna Gephart, author of Death by Toilet Paper and Olivia Bean, Trivia Queen.

"I highly recommend this incredible new book by talented author Debbie Reed Fischer. The description says this is for ages 9-12. I say it's more like 5-100 . . . With laugh out loud humor, sensitive friendship issues and even the beginning of her first real "like," This is Not the Abby Show is as entertaining as it is educational." --ReadingandEating.com
